THREE TIMES AND OVER.

Romantic Story of Two Lovers Who Had Difficulty in Getting Spliced.

Lewis Bright, aged 70 years, and Mrs. Harriet Mathers, aged 69 years, were married recently at Columbus, Ind., and connected with this event is a peculiar and romantic story.

Away back in the early fifties there lived in the western part of this county Robert Henderson and Thornton Bright, and each reared families. Mr. Bright's son Lewis called upon Mrs. Henderson's daughter Harriet. They became engaged, but had a lovers' quarrel and separated. Soon after Lewis married a Miss Starr and Miss Henderson a Mr. Jones. In a short time each lost their companion, and the old spark of love was rekindled, and they found themselves once more engaged. The day was set for the marriage, and the wedding guests were invited, but again came another quarrel, which set aside the proposed marriage.

Afterward Mr. Bright married a Miss Cooper, and Mrs. Jones married Miss Cooper's brother. Death having again robbed them of wife and husband, they again became quite friendly, and a match was almost made; but, as usual, another quarrel dispelled their union. This time Mr. Bright married a Mrs. Stett, and Mrs. Cooper married Mr. Mathias. In a few years they again found themselves made very lonely by the death of their companions. Mr. Bright began to cast longing glances at his former old flame, and they were met with favor by her, the result being the patching up of their differences and their final happy union after three previous ineffectual attempts. —Cincinnati Enquirer.

AN AGED VEGETARIAN.

A French Centenarian Who Has Never Eaten Meat or Touched Wine.

It will be good news to vegetarians that the French lady who is probably the oldest apostle of that dispensation in the world, Mme. Chevillard of Villegardin, in the Yonne, has just celebrated her hundredth birthday and is in the best of health. Her only ailment is a slight deafness, and beyond this she has never been sick in the whole course of her life. Mme. Chevillard is a stout, intelligent old lady and has won the respect of her neighbors and friends. So marked has been this respect that a fete was given in her honor at Villegardin on May 18, the anniversary of her birth. This was attended by every one in the village.

As a vegetarian Mme. Chevillard is one of the most consistent in the world. Her family did not believe in the anti-meat theory, but this elderly dame nevertheless has been committed to a vegetable diet all her life. Not only has she had a distaste for meat, but her positive dislike of the appearance of it has been so strong that all early attempts to induce her to taste it were fruitless. —New York World.
